Product description

This high-quality dashboard trim for the Porsche 911 model 992 combines elegance and functionality in one. Made from the finest leather in deep black, this trim offers a luxurious feel and an aesthetically pleasing look. The carefully crafted slate grey stitching adds a subtle contrast that highlights the overall design.

The trim is specially designed to fit the contours of the Porsche 911 model 992, ensuring a perfect fit and seamless integration into the vehicle interior. Installation is straightforward and uncomplicated, as it is an original Porsche part, which also guarantees the quality and durability of the product.

The OEM numbers for this dashboard trim are 992857003BEVA0, 992857003AFVA0 and 992857003PVA0, confirming its authenticity and specification in accordance with strict Porsche standards. As a new, unused and undamaged part, it is an excellent choice for renewing or upgrading the vehicle interior. This product is ideal for Porsche 911 model 992 owners who want to enhance the interior of their vehicle with an original, stylish and high-quality element that is both visually appealing and functional.
