Product description

This high-quality steering wheel is specially designed for Porsche models 911 (model 991), Boxster (model 981) and Cayman (model 981C). It is an original Porsche spare part, delivered in new, unused and undamaged condition. The steering wheel is made of smooth, Luxor beige leather, which not only looks elegant but also ensures a pleasant and soft feel.

The steering wheel's heated function increases comfort in cold weather by providing rapid and even warmth that warms the driver's hands and ensures additional safety through improved control. The integration of multifunction buttons allows easy operation of vehicle systems without having to take your hands off the steering wheel, contributing to a safer driving environment.

The OEM numbers for this steering wheel are 991347803689J9, 991347803429J9, 991347803149J9 and 991347803039J9. These numbers confirm the authenticity and ensure that the steering wheel fits perfectly with the specified Porsche models. In summary, this steering wheel offers a combination of luxury, functionality and comfort, and is an excellent choice for drivers who want to enhance their driving experience without compromising on style and quality.
